About the FOUNDER

Smruti Ranjan Nayak is a prolific artist hailing from the heritage state of Odisha in India. He pursued art education completing MFA from an Indian University and moved on to pursue a career in Art and Design. Today he works as the Creative Head of a top educational university in India; however his passion for art continues.

Nayak became an iconic contributor to the world of art by introducing his self-coined organisation 'I Am Artist' (International awareness Movement for Artists) which has a vast contemporary painting collection from all over the world. 'I Am Artist' works effortlessly to promote aspiring artists. Not a single day is missed in organising and hosting National & International online art exhibitions, workshops, webinars, 'Meet the artist series' and other art related actions. It is the first of its kind in the region to hold the maximum number of online art exhibitions for artists worldwide. I Am Artist reflects on the present living situation through artworks exhibited in exclusive virtual galleries.

He curates and regularly attends national & International art shows as jury. Nayak continues to inspire and surpass those in his field.

INTERNATIONAL ART
MAGAZINE FOR ARTISTS

Started in the year 2015, The International Awareness Movement for Artists, I Am Artist is a global platform for artists to exhibit their artworks, participate in online exhibitions and share their views in multiple events organised by us. I Am Artist promotes budding talents by giving them global exposure through its website, iamart.ist, social media, web forums and an exclusive e-magazine on Art. It also works effortlessly for non-artists with a strong inclination towards art to pursue their artistic interests, hone their skills in drawing and painting and also learn productively from professional artists through 'Meet the Artist Series'. Over these years, I Am Artist has passionately followed the artistic pursuits of senior citizens, patients recovering from terminal illness and those fighting depression and hypertension through art therapy. When one enrolls here, there is no age bar nor any kind of restraint.

It successfully organises free workshops and camps; participated and put up stalls in Fests and Exhibitions where volunteers teach a lot many things to art enthusiasts beyond the barriers of age, time and functionality. In this way, I Am Artist has massively undertaken worldwide interest in Public Art.
